CMS Annual General Meeting, 3.30 pm

Dear Fellow CMS Members

It's a great pleasure to be able to advise you all of two meetings being held during the course of the next few months. It is the hope of the Officers and Members of the Executive Committee that as many members as possible will be able to be with on us on these significant occasions for the Society. Please forgive me not giving you longer notice of the May event. I am in touch with a number of members by email.

The first of these diary dates is Tuesday 27 May in Cambridge at Gonville & Caius College, where we will be the guests of the College Precentor and Director of Music, CMS Member Dr Geoffrey Webber. This special afternoon and early evening commemorates the bicentenary of the birth of one of that University's most august alumni, Thomas Attwood Walmisley [1814-1856].

Organ: Prelude in E minor (1836)

Introit: Hail, gladdening light

Cambridge Preces & Responses (1845) edited by Walmisley

“as sung in King's, Trinity & St John's”

Psalm 85 to a chant by Walmisley

Office Hymn 342 (t. AMR 121 'Walmisley')

Evening Service in B flat, newly edited by Peter Horton and published by the Church Music Society

Anthem: If the Lord himself

Prelude and Fugue in E minor (1839)

The second event is the Annual General Meeting. This will be held at Sutton's Hospital in Charterhouse by the kind invitation of CMS Life Member Mr Graham Matthews on Thursday 18 September. Charterhouse is one of the capital's most spectacular 'hidden gems' and best-kept secrets. A visit is always memorable and the location of Charterhouse, very near to Smithfield Market is easily reached by public transport.

A detachable form on page three of this Newsletter enables you to book your place by post, returning the completed form to me here at home in Pudsey. Alternatively, I am very happy to receive replies by email to simon@simonlindley.org.uk
